

Ancient Remedy for Modern Health

Supports Optimal Health and Healing

Glandular supplementation is a powerful way to naturally boost your body's own production of important hormones and enzymes.

Promotes Optimal Energy and Vitality

Based on the principle that healthy glands contain all of the nutrients required for good health, Dr. Brimhall's Opti-Glandular contains a broad spectrum of organ and gland support to supply the nutrients necessary for optimal health.

Consciously Sourced Glandular Supplement

Opti-Glandular is made from the highest quality consciously-sourced ingredients and contains a full spectrum of hormones and enzymes to support total body health.

Reduction of Cancer Symptoms

We produce our capsules, powders, and liquids in our GMP-certified production and laboratory facility. Our products are 3rd party tested to ensure their safety, efficacy, and purity.
